Meanix gave Smart a great race to day. He was beaten in one of the most heartbreaking finishes that ever marked a hurdle event. Incidentally, through his defeat by Smart Meanix may have to walk all the way home to Boston, He came here only on the stipulation that the Boston A. A. would pay his expenses if he won.

Bill, who spent two months in the Plaitsburg training camp and got lots of hiking, is in splendid trim for a long like. However, considering the courageous race he put up to-day, it is not thought the Boston A. A. will hold him to goo the put up to-day, it is not thought the Boston A. DODGERS BEATEN, 3 TO 2

The leaking heavens shot to pieces the opening game of the scheduled double header between the Giants and Dodgers at Ebbets Field yesterday, but even Jupiter Pluvius couldn't stop the ancient rivals from mingling in the second melce and a cockle of the heart warming scrap resulted, the Giants winning, 3 to 2. The opening tilt was called off on ac-count of wet grounds, but the field was whipped into a condition resembling a bog such as Benny Kauff's Frish ances-tors used to waddle over in dear old tors used to waddle over in dear old County Mayo, and the teams "sicked" on each other in the second game. The 4.000 of the 25.000 fans who probably would have been present had the weather been propitious were treated to a sizzling exhibition of the national pastime. Those who expected to see mud ball saw a real baseball game instead, one abounding in long ringing hits, thrilling stops, catches and throws, sulended nitching and acceptables.
